The National Institute of Mass Communication has been set up in 2003 in collaboration with the Canadian Institute of Mass Communication, Ontario, Canada by Educational Media Research Society, New Delhi (a society registered under Societies Registration Act XXI of 1860). The objective is to impart quality training to students in mass media so that they efficiently utilize media technology in the best possible manner to keep pace with the fast evolving communication industry.

OVERVIEW:

We offer various mass communication courses that include Diploma in Journalism & Mass Communication, Bachelor of Journalism & Mass Communication; Post graduate Diploma in Journalism & Mass Communication and Master of Journalism & Mass Communication from University Grants Commission, Govt. of India, recognized university. Along with the above degree, students also get an additional Diploma in Electronic Media from CIMC, Ontario, Canada. The Advantage of a Dual Degree/ Diploma programme is that students get rigorous practical training besides a strong theoretical foundation.

The Institute strives to produce efficient and incisive communication professionals for which it has introduced a wide range of Short Term Diploma Courses in News Reading, Reporting, Anchoring & Radio Jockeying; Diploma in Video Production, Camera & Lights; Diploma in Visual Editing; Diploma in Acting and Performing Media, Diploma in Print Journalism along with one year Diploma in Mass Communication & TV Journalism.
ACTIVITIES: To stimulate the interest in Media and Journalism as career, rigorous and extensive workshops on media tools are organized for students. Studio based production workshops, radio programs, documentary film productions, news Reading/Anchoring workshops, Theatre Workshops, participation in film festivals, participation in live programmes of NDTV, AAJTAK, Doordarshan, IBN helps students to identify and nurture theirs potentials.

INTERNSHIPS AND PLACEMENT:

We provide 100% placements and internships to our students for which NIMC have tie-ups with reputed media organizations like STAR, ZEE TV, NDTV, AAJTAK, SAHARA, DOORDARSHAN and AJK Mass Communication & Research Centre Jamia, alumni. NIMC maintains close contacts and professional relations with large number of media organizations, PR agencies, ad agencies and academic institutions. The Institute has a full fledged authorised web news channel VOICE OF PEOPLE, web news portal ANN24X7& POLITICIAN TODAY for exposing its students to media environment. NIMC is successfully running a Production House ITV since 15 years. It has been providing an initial platform to students for recognition of their practical work. NIMC is setting up a lifestyle entertainment YouTube channel to cater the need of web based content development of media students (fiction & non fiction). NIMC has established six societies for specialization of students in various fields of media.

ANNUAL AWARD:

Each year, students are required to make documentary films, radio programmes and photo essays. The films get screened in various national and international film festivals. NIMC gives away many annual awards to its students for excelling in various fields of mass media. NIMC introduce Anwar Jamal Kidwai Lifetime Achievement Award two years ago, which is given away each year to a veteran media personality in recognition of his/her vast contribution to the Media World.
